

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1907.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NIGHT EDITION

LAUTERBACH ON THE BIG FOUR.

Elected Member of the Republican Committee's Advisory Board.

GEN. McALPIN, TREASURER.

Hackett and Odell Again Selected to Manage the Campaign.

MURRAY SUCCEEDS SIMPSON.

"Shiner" Turned Down for Being Too Friendly with the Brookfield Crowd.

The State Committee of the Republican party met in the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-day and organized for the coming campaign.

One of the first things done was to elect "Smooth" Ed Lauterbach a member of the Advisory Board, or "Big Four," as it is called. The other members are Boss Platt, Chauncey M. Depew and Warner Miller.

For a year the Advisory Committee has consisted of three members—Depew, Miller and Platt. The resolution authorizing such advisory committee limited it to "not exceeding four members," and at the outset ex-Senator Frank Hiscock was the fourth.

Three were deemed sufficient last year, but this year the number is to be increased to the old limit, chiefly to make a conspicuous place for Lauterbach.

No changes were made in the officers, with the exception of the treasurer, Gen. E. A. McAlpin, who is on Governor Morton's staff, and who was elected to succeed the late E. B. Harper as treasurer.

The others elected were C. W. Hackett, Chairman; John S. Kenyon, Secretary; and Reuben L. Fox, Chief Clerk. Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., was re-elected Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The members of the new committee are as follows:

- William J. Young, Louis H. Van, Andrew J. Jones, Wm. C. Collins, William J. Gould, Wm. Barlow, Jr., Fred H. Schroeder, E. C. Wiley, Robert A. Sharkey, William L. Frozier, George W. Dunham, John J. Murr, John F. Murray, George W. Dunham, John A. Graham, P. H. Hackett, George Hillard, John F. Parkhurst, Thomas Weed, Henry A. Brainer, Charles W. Aldridge, Wm. Brockfield, John R. Hart, Abraham Gruber, James M. Doremus, Wm. H. Robinson, Ben. B. Odell, Jr., Henry R. Harst, Harvey J. Hand, William J. Glenn.

Ten changes were made in the personnel of the committee. One of the notable changes is that of Charles H. Murray, to succeed John Simpson, from the Ninth District. In the Twelfth, Ross Hackett succeeds John McKeever. In the Twelfth, Thurston Wood Hackett was chosen in place of John B. Odell.

Abraham Gruber, by virtue of his vic-

AN IMPENDING CRISIS.

The Difficult Position of a Statesman Who Wants to Please the Rural and Placate the City Voter.

toy in the Twenty-first Assembly District, was appointed representative from the Fourteenth in place of Julius Mayer.

Two important changes were made in interior districts, namely, Harvey J. Hurd, in place of John N. Scatcherd, of Buffalo, and C. V. Collins, of Chatham, in place of William Q. Daley, who was nominated for the Senate yesterday by the Republicans of the Dutchess-Columbia-Putnam district. James M. Doremus has Gen. C. H. H. Collins' seat from the Fifteenth District.

No selection was made in the Sixth District, as the contestants were unable to agree upon a candidate.

The Executive Committee is now composed of the following members: C. W. Hackett, William Brookfield, E. A. McAlpin, William H. Robertson, George W. Aldridge, Ernest H. Davis, H. J. Hurd, John F. Parkhurst, Cornelius Van Cott, George W. Dunham, William W. Goodrich, William Barnes, Jr., William L. Frozier, Frank H. Hiscock, Abraham Gruber and William S. C. Wiley.

The question of having a larger State Committee was referred to the Executive Committee, which will report at the next meeting of the State Committee. No action was taken on the subject in the Sixth Congressional District.

The committee adjourned at 1:30 subject to the call of the Chair.

In the corridor of the hotel there were grouped at noon to-day more brands of Republicans than have been crammed in a single building since the Committee of LXX held its famous Kangaroo Convention last Fall.

The two most notable figures in the convention were Boss Platt, sleek, smiling, suave and confident, and "Shiner" John Simpson, of the glorious old A.C.

Mr. Platt shook hands with everybody and appeared to be on the best of terms with himself. Mr. Simpson, with a little scratch on his face, a memento of trying to run his district Brookfield fashion Thursday night, was sore at himself and everybody else—"Dead sore," "Shiner" said.

He leaned against the wall between the barroom and the telephone girl's cage, and scowled.

"It's wrong," he soliloquized, "dead wrong. I don't mind being turned down myself, but the deprecation of the rights of American citizens must be upheld."

"Why, it's coming now so that an honest man has no right in politics. But they'd better be careful. I predict now if Charley Murray is put on the State Committee in my place, it'll be another case of Maynard. Why, say, Maynard won't be in it."

Mr. Simpson's complaint was inspired by the fact that the Platt folks had decided to give his place as a member of the State committee to ex-Police Commissioner Murray.

The "Shiner's" fall was due to the fact that he has been training with the Brookfield crowd lately, and it was deemed best to discipline him.

Before the committee met to-day there was an exchange of opinions on the relative merits and chances of the two tickets and platforms. The most sanguine partisans were counting on a 60-40 majority for the Republican ticket and 25,000 for the local ticket—if it is a straight one.

"Smooth" Ed Lauterbach was on hand with Abe Gruber, Charley Murray, Gen. Mike Keever, Bob Gresson, Lou Payn, Cornelius Van Cott and Jake Patterson, all talking straight ticket.

Mr. Platt didn't talk about anything much. He moved about, shaking hands with the country statesmen who were on hand. As the new committee, which was organized, is almost unanimously his personal property, he had very good reason to feel satisfied.

The meeting of the committee was of very short duration.

Cambridge vs. Yale. International Intercollegiate Game, Manhattan Field, Saturday, Oct. 2, at 3 P. M. Tickets on sale at A. G. Seating & Book, 128 Nassau st., and 421 st. and 5th ave., also at leading hotels and ticket agencies.

NOT A CANDIDATE, BUT—

New Says Harrison Is Partial to Neilhes McKinley Nor Reed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—Col. John C. New, who managed ex-President Harrison's campaign for the nomination for the Presidency, and was Consul-General of the United States at London during the Harrison administration, in an authorized interview in the Indianapolis News to-day, said:

"Gen. Harrison does not desire to run for the Presidency, and is in no sense a candidate, and the stories that he has withdrawn in the interests of any one are without foundation in fact. Were his advice solicited he would select neither Mr. McKinley nor Mr. Reed as the Republican candidate for President."

Col. New declined to state whom he would prefer as a candidate.

Candidate in the Twenty-fifth.

The only Senatorial district in the city from a Republican standpoint where a candidate has been practically selected is the Twenty-fifth. There it is conceded that Michael J. McCann is sure of the nomination. Mr. McCann has been one of the hardest workers in the district, and as he is on the most friendly terms with the Lauterbach as well as the Brookfield faction, he would be acceptable to both.

LIEUT. PEARY AT HALIFAX.

His Expedition Arrives There on the Steamer Silvia.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 28.—The steamer Silvia, with Lieut. Peary and Arctic expedition on board, has arrived here.

A ROW AT THE POLO GROUNDS.

McGraw Ordered From the Field in the Third by Umpire Keefe.

ORIOLE'S ABUSIVE TACTICS.

A Pretty Double Play on Fuller's Stop of Robinson's Hot Ground.

FULLY 7,000 SAW THE GAME.

Duke Farrell's Screaming Line to Centre Brought in the First Two Runs.

(Special to the Evening World.)

POLO GROUNDS, N. Y., Sept. 28.—With one more victory necessary to establish a clear title to the championship flag, and with but one more game to play, N.Y. Giants' scrappy collection of birds again swooped down upon the Giants this afternoon.

It was a case of do or die desperation with the Orioles.

For weeks their nerves have been strung up to the utmost. The result of to-day's encounter will practically settle the fight.

Should Baltimore lose their hopes will be greatly shattered, and in the state of nervousness they will naturally be on Monday, it is dollars to peanuts that Col. Amos Rube will beat them.

It was "Duke" Clarke's turn to face the champion this afternoon, and as Mr. "Maloney's" finger has entirely recovered, he felt confident of his ability to do the enemy.

Capt. Robinson presented his young "phenom," Hoffer, for the local batsmen to solve.

The New York management tried a fair of new youngsters this morning. One was Dalton, the muddler who played with Bohemian this year. He comes highly recommended, both as a batter and a fielder. In practice this youngster showed up exceedingly well.

The other man is Otto, who pitched for the Morris Plains, N. J., team. He, too, comes highly recommended and possesses speed and nice curves.

"Scrappy" McGraw, the Oriole's third baseman, who a few days ago was reported as dying with malarial fever, showed up at the Polo Grounds to-day chipper as ever.

A big crowd was present when play was called, fully 7,000 persons in the stands.

The Giants were weakened to-day by the absence of Jack Doyle. He injured his ankle again yesterday. In consequence George Davis went to second, German taking third. Tim Keefe showed up just in time and officiated in to-day's game.

The Batting Order.

Batsmore, 1. Fuller, 2. Keefe, 3. Robinson, 4. Farrell, 5. Clarke, 6. Hoffer, 7. McGraw, 8. Keefe, 9. Keefe, 10. Keefe, 11. Keefe, 12. Keefe, 13. Keefe, 14. Keefe, 15. Keefe, 16. Keefe, 17. Keefe, 18. Keefe, 19. Keefe, 20. Keefe.

First Inning.

Keefe pitched a fly into left garden.

200 RUNS. ONE OUT.

Great Batting Against the Oxford and Cambridge Cricketers.

CRICKET GROUNDS, HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 28.—The second day's play in the third international cricket match between the gentlemen of Philadelphia and Cambridge and Oxford representatives was begun at 11:05 o'clock to-day.

When stumps were drawn last night, the Englishmen had scored 128 runs in their first inning, while the Americans had put out together 38 runs for no wickets. Patterson and Carbridge and Oxford representatives were begun at 11:05 o'clock to-day.

When stumps were drawn last night, the Englishmen had scored 128 runs in their first inning, while the Americans had put out together 38 runs for no wickets. Patterson and Carbridge and Oxford representatives were begun at 11:05 o'clock to-day.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

At 12:20 the Philadelphia had scored 200 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket. Patterson and Carbridge had scored 150 runs without having lost a wicket.

THE BRITISH CHALLENGER, SPRUCE IV., BEATEN IN THE FINAL RACE.

The British Challenger, Spruce IV., Beaten in the Final Race.

THE PROTEST NOT ALLOWED.

Mr. Brand Is Disappointed at the Decision, but He Acts Gamely.

YANKEE'S RACE ALL THE WAY.

Ethelwynn Takes the Lead at the Start and Finishes with a Hit to Spare.

(Special to the Evening World.)

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 28.—The Regatta Committee of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club has decided against the British yacht Spruce IV., in the matter of the protest of yesterday's race.

Mr. Brand, owner of Spruce IV., was very much disappointed at the decision of the committee on his protest.

"I was confident when I came in last night," said he, "that I had won the race. I am sure that the loss of time I sustained in the incident I complained of was more than the minute and ten seconds by which we were behind at the finish."

His face soon resumed its agreeable expression again, however, and he added that the match had been very interesting, anyhow. He added that he was afraid there was not enough wind for his boat to-day.

The decision of the committee constituted a fifth race, as each had won two. As had been stipulated in the articles, the choice of course for the fifth race was tossed for by Messrs. Brand and Hall, and the former won.

As his boat is better at reaching than running or beating, he selected the triangular course in preference to one to windward and return.

There was not much wind when the boats left the club-house dock for the Centre Island buoy, the point of start.

Ethelwynn was taken out of the water this morning, and the designer, Mr. Stevens, had a number of men busy getting her ready for to-day's contest.

When the centreboard was taken out it was found to be buckled.

E. N. Hall, Ethelwynn's skipper, came ashore this morning, and was asked if his centreboard was in trouble. He answered that the ladder had been a little bent, but it was straightened, and the boat was now in as good shape as at any time.

When Ethelwynn and Spruce dropped their bows near the starting line at the Centre Island buoy they found a breeze from north-northwest, blowing at the rate of six or seven miles an hour, with a sea that could not be called

(Continued on Second Page.)

THE NEW BIG FOUR OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

WARNER MILLER.

THOMAS C. PLATT.

EDWARD LAUTERBACH.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.