De Long and Party Found Dead—Cabinet Meeting—Death of Rear Admiral Rodgers—Gulf and Oscar Wide—Senator Blair's Testimony Resumed—California Southern Railroad—Demise of an Aged Mason—Funeral of Ex-Postmaster General Maynard—A City on Fire—Etc.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Considerable disappointment is expressed in Pacific Coast circles this evening that President Arthur did not take action on the new Chinese bill to-day, and there is much comment on an unfavorable nature upon the announcement that it will be further considered by the Cabinet Council next Tuesday.

THE CHINESE BILL. WASHINGTON, May 5.—Considerable disappointment is expressed in Pacific Coast circles this evening that President Arthur did not take action on the new Chinese bill to-day, and there is much comment on an unfavorable nature upon the announcement that it will be further considered by the Cabinet Council next Tuesday.

THE MONEY LETTER. WASHINGTON, May 5.—It appears probable that "Colonel" Horatio Hercules Hadley, who acquired notoriety during the last presidential campaign as Secretary of the Hancock Republican Club in New York, will soon emerge from his obscurity again, and engage public attention, for a short time.

THE SHIPPER'S ENQUIRY. WASHINGTON, May 5.—The examination of Senator Blair was resumed this morning. Witness refused to state the amount of stock owned by him by shipper, and said: "I have understood at the first interview that I appeared here as counsel. I knew I was deterring of shipper. I asked the Secretary if from his knowledge of the affair there could be any impropriety in my acting as counsel, and he said he could see none whatever if I concealed my connection with the shipper, and I did so."

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. WASHINGTON, May 5.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Tariff Commission bill.

THE SENATE. WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Senate resumed its session this morning, and the House took a recess.

THE CHICAGO RACES. CHICAGO, May 5.—The Chicago Driving Park summer trotting meet, July 15th to the 1st of August, will be opened with a public meeting to-day.

THE KENTUCKY RACES. LEXINGTON, May 5.—This was the fourth day's racing and the fourth of the regular meeting. The track was very heavy.

DENVER (Col.), May 5.—General Sherman has arrived here, and will remain till Saturday, then going east. In an interview with the press, General Sherman said that he had 4,700 Indians at the Agency, only 375 were engaged in the recent outbreak, and their intention evidently was not to go upon a raid, but to make their way into old Mexico.

THE CALIFORNIA SOUTHERN RAILROAD. BOEYON, May 5.—The California Southern R.R. Company has elected Directors as follows: Thomas Nickerson, Thomas L. Rogers, Moses A. Luce, Joseph O. Oswood, Frank A. Kimball, of San Diego. Officers: Thomas Nickerson, President; Thomas L. Rogers, Vice-President; W. B. Smith, Treasurer and Assistant Secretary; J. H. Goodspeed, Auditor; Frank H. Pattee, of San Diego, Attorney; Joseph O. Oswood, of San Diego, Chief Engineer.

ONE OF THE VERY BEST. [Maps Daily Register.]

The Record-Union, one of the very best dailies published in California, has been enlarged to a nine-column paper. This enlargement was necessitated by the pressure on its columns for advertising space, which business well for the business interests of the capital city. We heartily wish our worthy contemporary continued prosperity.
