

Attention recent Nutrition graduates – this is your opportunity to participate in a landmark clinical nutrition research study as a Lead Nutrition Research Assistant! Your participation in this supervisory and training role with the Framingham State Food Study will provide you with the unique and invaluable experience of working in the fields of research, dietetics and commercial dining services all at the same time. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to add this experience to your resume!

*This is a 10-month grant funded position with benefits and pays $15/hour.
August 2016-May 2017

Location: Assabet Valley Regional Vocational High School [satellite feeding site for (FS)<sup>2</sup>]
215 Fitchburg Street, Marlboro

Responsibilities:

- Supervise a team of Nutrition Research Assistants and provide on-going training as needed
- Communicate effectively with Program Manager, Head and Sous Chef to address additional training needs
- Follow food safety guidelines and HACCP regulations in basic food preparation
- Check participants in and out, keeping track of uneaten food
- Weigh participant's food to exact amounts
- Measure hot portion of meals when participants arrive
- Obtain ingredients from dry storage and different refrigerators
- Clean working area after each meal is prepared
- Stock food and paper goods
- Manage time effectively to produce several meals in advance
- Work with dietitians to ensure quality, accuracy, and prevention of contamination by allergens
- Precise weighing of ingredients and foods for service
- Strong attention to detail is critical

Qualifications:

- Commitment to 30 hours per week, 5:30am-11:30am, Monday-Friday
- Experience managing/supervising staff
- Experience and/or ability to complete basic food preparation
- Skill to complete precise weighing and tracking of ingredients and foods for service
- Proven attention to detail

Apply at this link: <https://www.schoolspring.com/job.cfm?jid=2702173>