NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

BEN RAY REDMAN is well-known as a contributor to Harper's, The Nation, The Literary Review and other magazines. He has just completed a translation of Jean Giraudoux's "Suzanne et le Pacifique" which will be published early next year by G. P. Putnam's Sons. He edits a book page in The Spur.

EDWARD H. PFEIFFER, author of poems, stories and essays, lives at Redlands, California. Mr. Pfeiffer won the Spingarn prize for poetry at Columbia in 1910. He has contributed to many magazines.

LOUISE H. GUYOL, a native of New Orleans, is living in Boston where she is connected with the editorial staff of The Boston Transcript.

MARGARET BATTERHAM whose unusual "Three Fires" appears in this issue, is now cruising with her husband, Don Waters, in a small sloop through the Bahamas.

YVONNE JUVENAL, a young Austrian poet, is now living in New York City.

WALTER McCLELLAN, whose first play is printed in this number, is already known to readers of The Double Dealer as a poet of extraordinary ability.

IVAN T. DOWELL has just returned to New Orleans from Ocean Beach, California, where he spent the summer. Those who remember his work which has previously appeared in The Double Dealer will note the unusual departure in "Futility" and "Poem."

Issued monthly by The Double Dealer Publishing Co., Inc., 204 Baronne Street, New Orleans, La. Yearly subscription, twelve months, two dollars and a half in advance; single copies, twenty-five cents. All contributions should be addressed to the Editors of The Double Dealer, with stamped, self-addressed envelopes for their return. Entered as second-class matter January 31, 1921, at the Post Office at New Orleans, La., under the Act of March 3, 1879.
