The Ocala swimming pool is a real benediction and Manager Campbell keeps it in the best of order.

Subscribe for the STAR. It will keep you posted as to the doings of our city and give you all general state news.

Miss Mattie Allred and little brother John went to Jacksonville last night and will take in St. Augustine before returning.

Mrs. H. E. Sanderson and little boy left this morning at 11 for Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Sanderson accompanied them as far as Jacksonville.

"Johnny," called an Ocala mother out of the window to her hopeful, "do stop playing with that Willie Bricktop. It's too warm today to play with a red-headed boy."

Cheap excursion to West Florida on Friday, June 28, good for 10 days. Rate to Madison, Monticello, and Tallahassee, $4.50; Quincy, $5.

Neal M. Allred was admitted to the bar Saturday. He was examined by Judge Hocker and passed a splendid examination. We wish for him a long and brilliant career.

Prof. L. M. Hatton of Inverness is talking of organizing a stock company for the purpose of opening a business college in Ocala. This is a laudable scheme and one that our people will give all encouragement.

We call attention to a communication in another column from Mr. Ditto on the temperance question. What do our honorable legislators have to say for themselves? Our columns are open for information upon this vital question.

The artesian well being drilled for the city jail cesspool was getting along nicely last Friday evening, when, at a depth of 100 feet, the 800-foot drill broke, leaving it at the bottom of the well. Mr. Liddon has been fishing for the drill ever since, but so far without success. Should he fail to recover the drill he will be out about $500.

Col. T. W. Harris is in the city.

J. A. Griffin leaves for Jacksonville tonight.

Ed Holder, we are glad to see, is out again.

E. W. Agnew has returned from Jacksonville.

Judge Hocker left today to hold court at Brooksville.

A fine lot of young fat chickens just received at Gray's.

Walter Agnew returned from a visit to Lake Weir today.

Capt. W. C. Zimmerman of Citrus county was in town Saturday.

Fame, Florida's Favorite Melon, on ice at P. Dukes's green grocery.

The Ocala Base Ball Club would like to arrange a game here for the Fourth of July.

Miss Berdie Day, of Jacksonville, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Lyons, left for her home this morning.

A good many of our people took advantage of the excursion to Jacksonville today and visited that city and St. Augustine.

A nice lot of chickens just right to broil, received this morning at P. Dukes's Green Grocery.

Mrs. J. R. Dewey and children, of Rochelle, passed through Ocala on their way to Anita, where they go to visit her sister, Mrs. R. S. Clark.

"Pete" Clare, well and favorably known as the ex-manager of the Ocala house, leaves for New York tomorrow night. Hope to see him again this fall.

Any one wishing a mileage over the East Coast Line requested to apply to C. S. McGee, Ocala, Fla.

National Educational Association at Denver, Col. Tickets on sale July 4, 5 and 6, good to return as late as Sept. 1, for $46.15 round trip.

The congregation at the Ocala Methodist church last night was fairly good, and the pastor, Rev. J. M. Pike, preached one of his characteristic soul-stirring sermons.

Rev. T. J. Davenport, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, preached two able sermons to his people yesterday. We are sorry to learn that he is on the sick list today.

The famous play run a grand excursion to the Island, Port Tampa. Leave Ocala at 10 o'clock this morning. Fare 50c. for children. Go and have a grand time. The new Passenger Steamship has just begun to run. The most artistic pictures of this excursion ever seen.

DeLand, Fla. Mitchell girls, wife of Justice of the Peace, and Gad Taylor. Gad Taylor arrested out a warrant against a woman before Mr. Mitchell's daughters of Brooksville, Yemassee, and a daughter of Reddick, went to Gad Taylor's home. Gad Taylor's wife was in jail, so could not give assistance. They were released at their own costs.
