CLASS HYMN . . . . . Words by Anne Tower

Dear Alma Mater, our college,
Friend of your daughters, and true,
May your children inherit your wisdom,
Who pledge their devotion to you.

Four years have we honored and loved you,
Your precepts have striven to maintain,
Lived by your grace and your guidance.
May we always revere your dear name.

Now as we leave your protection
Life's pathway to travel alone,
Still guide your daughters to work for
The triumph of right over wrong.

HYMN—No. 180
