Class Hymn for 1906.

Words by a member of the Graduating Class; Melody by Miss Pipping of the Graduating Class.

'Mid the bursting of the flowers,
'Mid the sunshine of the hours,
While soft breezes fill the air
With sweet scents and perfumes rare,
Grateful hearts to Thee we raise,
Giver of these happy days.

Buds and blossoms, birds and bees,
Swaying grass and murmuring breeze,
Dancing water, white cloud isles;
Heaven is near us, Nature smiles.
All our hearts are filled with love
For thy goodness, Power above.

As thou guardest bird and flower,
Keeping watch each passing hour,
Hold us too, within thy heart,
Love and strength to us impart,
Prayer and praise to Thee we bring
O Our Father, and Our King!
