At some of the parties of late there has been considerable coldness caused between ladies and gentlemen formerly friends on account of a peculiar cause. It is that of engaging partners for certain dances at parties that are days or even weeks off. It often happens that in thus engaging partners such a long time ahead that the memories of the ladies become somewhat confused and they forget what dances they have promised. As a consequence they make new engagements the evening of the party and after so doing the gentleman who made the prior engagement appears and asks for the dance so long promised him. Of course he wants the name of the other gentleman erased and his own substituted. The young lady is then in a dilemma. In either case she is sure to give offense to the gentleman whose name she drops from her card. A number of such unfortunate complications have occurred of late and resulted in strained relations. At one party a similar difficulty resulted in a coldness between a lady and her escort and the gentleman refused to speak a single word to the young lady although he accompanied her home. Some gentlemen insist that it is unfair to make any engagements for dances prior to the evening of the party and if that principle is carried out a good many heart aches may be saved.

The last party of the Pleasant Hour club before Lent, was given at the Hotel Lincoln on Tuesday evening and proved one of the most brilliant and enjoyable affairs of the season. An aggregation of prettier faces and more becoming costumes is rarely ever seen in a ball room, and a jollier and more gentlemanly gathering of escorts could not be found. There was every preliminary arrangement attended to make the event a grand success, and so it proved. The music, lunch, and all the conveniences which contribute to the pleasure of guests were all that heart, eye, sense and taste could wish and not only the committee on arrangements but also Mr. Shears of the Lincoln are deserving of commendation for their efforts. At 8:30 the guests began to arrive and at nine the orchestra struck up the strains of the opening dance. From then until after 1 a. m. joy was unconfined. The cream of Lincoln society was in attendance.

From the opening waltz to the closing "Home, sweet home," there was an uninterrupted round of pleasure. Dancing was of course the main diversion of the evening, although lounging on the elegant circular sofas and promenading in the foyer between dances furnished an exquisite and quiet pleasure, by way nothing of the ecstasy from an interchange of coquettish glances. At 11 o'clock the hundred guests sat down to an elegant lunch with a prelude of scalloped oysters on the half-shell and an afterlude of ice cream. After the discussion of the collation dancing was again resumed. There was a wonderful variety in the costumes worn by the ladies and great artistic taste displayed in the harmony of colors and adaptability to the fair wearers. The following is a list of the ladies and it is believed a correct description of their toilets, although to do justice to all the account would fill every page of THE COURIER:

The masquerade ball given Tuesday evening at Bohanan's hall by the Lincoln Turn Verein was a grand success both socially and financially. The immense hall was crowded all evening, with ladies and gentlemen in handsome and grotesque costumes, including maids of high and low degree, courtiers, sailors, Indians, soldiers, messenger boys, policemen, and the many and varied conceptions of the costumer and the wearers. The unmasking took place about midnight, but it was nearly dawn before the last of the dancers wended their way homeward. Company D, of the National guards, and a band of Indians impersonated by members of the Turn Verein, gave a very graphic reproduction of the battle of Wounded Knee, and the ghost dance, the whole winding up with a magnificent tableau representing the goddess of liberty surrounded by soldiers with the dead boys in blue and Indians lying about in picturesque attitude. The fancy shooting by a Lincoln young lady and some excellent club swinging were notable features of the entertainment. The members of the Turn Verein may well feel proud of their success as entertainers. All pronounced the ball for pure and unalloyed pleasures one of the best ever held in the city.

Mrs. Sidney Murphy, assisted by Miss Florence Putnam, gave a children's party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy, 3525 N street, on Tuesday from 4 to 8 p. m. The little folks enjoyed themselves with music, games and dancing. Refreshments were served at six o'clock. The gathering proved a most delightful one in every detail and Miss Putnam proved a charming and successful young hostess. The young people having the pleasure of being present were: Misses Ethel Appleget, Sadie Burnham, Edith Bain, Mattie Criley, Rosabud Foster, Edith Foster, Mattie Huffman, Hazel Huffman, Bessie Hayden, Edna Harley, Margie Loomis, Edith Lewis, Florence Putnam, Lou Peebles, Edna Salisbury, Grace Sanders, May Travis, Masters Leroy Brown, Theodore Criley, Fred Doolittle, Raymond Hale, John Harley, Sam Foster, James Hayden, Eddie Loomis, Harold Lewis, Horace Munson, Milow Munson, Owen Oakley, Eddie Peebles, Allie Saunders, Bertie Watkins and Halsey Yates.

The reception given Wednesday evening by the members of the Y. M. C. A. to their new general secretary, proved a thoroughly enjoyable social event. The association rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and tropical plants. A large number of persons were present. In connection with the reception the association held its second public quarterly meeting. The programme comprised a number of orchestral renditions, songs by the Messrs. Easterday and a dramatic selection by Miss Dey. This programme was well rendered and at its conclusion the reception was given.

Mrs. W. H. Weaver and daughter Naomi, after a two weeks visit in Atchison and Kansas City, returned Monday. During their stay at Atchison they attended the Chandler-Jackson nuptials, which was a most elegant affair. The bride is well known in Lincoln, where she had previously visited and many numerous friends, all of whom on this joyous occasion extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wolcott have returned from their jaunt of six weeks through the east, in the course of which they visited New York, Boston and other points.

As a Rule, It is best not to attempt to remedy costiveness by the use of saline or drastic purgatives. When a cathartic medicine is needed, the most prompt and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. The effect is to restore the regular action of the bowels, without weakening them. Being sugar-coated, these Pills retain their medicinal virtues for a long time, and are easy to take. I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family. -J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa. "In 1858, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since." -H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark. Ayer's Pills, PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Dealers in Medicines.
