Bargain Editor:

Dear Sir—

Bargains in more ways than one are the substantial reductions in prices of perfumery at the Golden Seal drug store. These reductions are on such standard perfumes as Colgate's and Rieckecker's, leaders of the perfumery world. A bargain, to be honestly called a bargain, must be a standard quality at a minimum of cost, hence when standard perfumes are advertised at prices less than half the ordinary cost, backed by the reputation of an established firm, this must be the best bargain, inasmuch as it fulfills the requirements of a bargain—quality, reputation of seller and minimum of cost.

A. R. Bodmer,
813 North Third Street.

Third Prize-winner

The Bargain Editor:

Dear Sir—

The Security Trust Company offers the best bargain. Any ambitious person can save $1 to open a bank account and can increase it dollar by dollar at regular times. Every dollar saved is a stepping-stone to financial independence, security against want in old age and protection for the inevitable rainy day.

A bank account is a silent partner that never grows tired, makes no mistakes and always brings in dividends.

Mrs. Samuel M. Taylor,
903 North Second Street.

Wept as His Stock Was Killed

Lebanon, Nov. 18.—While Simon Tice, a North Lebanon township farmer, tenant on the Pennsylvania Steel Company's farm, wept like a child, yesterday morning, agents of the State of Pennsylvania, killed and buried fifteen cows, two bulls, nine heifers, a sow and a litter of pigs to stamp out the hoof and mouth disease.

Arrested for Highway Robbery

Lebanon, Nov. 18.—John Brewer, of this city, and Leroy Haas and Wayne Arnold, of Hebron, are under arrest, being charged as members of the gang that Friday night beat and robbed Harry Stamm, a local street railway conductor, securing $26 in cash.
