

BY SUDDEN

END OF WAR

Continued from Page One

is too little known in Framingham.

An earlier piece, done by Mrs. Fuller at the beginning of the war and on a similar theme, was on exhibition at the rooms of the Woman's Peace Party¹ in Boston, some time ago, and was described in The News.